Volunteers

With more than a century of experience, ACH brings needed resources and skills to children and families struggling with life's challenges. Our volunteers join us in helping child and families experience safety, hope, and love.

Group Opportunities

Safe Place Site Reviews

Our community needs help keeping our kids safe from violence and abuse. Help us perform site checks throughout Tarrant County. We provide the questions. You provide the car! Flexible dates and times available. Scheduled as needed.

Group Service Projects

Interested in a service project with ACH? We have various opportunities and tasks for groups throughout the year.

Campus Cleanups

We need volunteers, between 20-40 people, to come out and help renew both of our campus locations for fall and spring. Clean outside, inside, light maintenance, and more. Contact us for details and registration.

Individual Opportunities

Volunteer Mentors

Help youths 14-21 participating in the LIFE Project and Morris Program* gain trusting relationships. Must be at least 25 years of age and commit to one year of service. Apply online today!

*The LIFE Project promotes self-confidence and self-sufficiency for young adults aging out of the foster care system and homeless young adults by providing independent living housing options and skills development. The Morris Program offers safe, stable and nurturing homes for youth, ages 14-17, who are unable to live with their families or in a community home setting.

Supper Club

Volunteers (individuals and groups) provide a healthy portioned meal along with a fun activity to children, youth and families who call ACH home. Learn more at ACHservices.org/supper-clubs

Other Opportunities

Women's Auxiliary Group

Joining the ACH Women's Auxiliary is a sure way to become part of a team of women dedicated to making a difference! We are looking for a diverse and dynamic group of women devoted to supporting the children and families of ACH!

In-Kind Drive

To support our kids, families, and programs, ACH accepts donated goods and services to support our mission across the agency. In-kind contributions are donations of goods, services, or time. Tangible goods include equipment, books, clothing, furniture, hygiene and care supplies, along with other goods that may be used in surplus, new in condition.
